

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK, CALIFORNIA
THE YOSEMITE CHAPEL

Built in 1879 by the contributions of Sunday School children and others, this little chapel is the oldest building in Yosemite Valley. In 1965 it was placed on the Historic American Buildings list in the Library of Congress, and restored by the National Park Service. Services for all faiths are held weekly throughout the year.

BSY-99

Color photo by Norman A. Bishop

MIRRO-KROME CARD BY H. S. CROCKER CO., INC., SAN FRANCISCO 94103

address

*place
stamp
here*